In cooperation with MEAN WELL, SIKLON brightens every corner of Indonesia

Date: March 20th 2019

With the motto of “lighting the world with green energy”, SIKLON has been working in the lighting industry in Indonesia for nearly ten years. SIKLON is the First Integrated Renewable Energy Company in Indonesia which specializes in producing deep cycle gel batteries and LED lights in one factory. Thanks to their ease of installation and maintenance, SIKLON's LED street lights are widely used in more than 60 cities and regions in Indonesia.

For SIKLON, MEAN WELL is not only a supplier with good service, high quality products and prompt delivery, but also a long-term partner. MEAN WELL's excellent reputation has been confirmed from using more than 60,000 units with very few quality problems. In the future, SIKLON is certain that they will develop the Indonesian market with MEAN WELL, and its street lamps will light every corner of Indonesia.
